

Develop a UML Domain Model Class Diagram (DMCD) for this system. This DMCD must include all domain classes (including abstract classes), attributes and relationships (e.g., associations and other relationships), which can be identified from the above narrative. The class and attribute names must be indicative and use the camelback notation. The multiplicities must be presented in the relationships.

